

Question 4

- Create a bucket in google cloud storage from the console.
- Create a datastore by giving entity name and adding property to it.
- Create a cloud function to extract information from the object updated in the bucket and store the information in the datastore created.
- Add cloud storage trigger on cloud function while creation and give event type Finalize/Create.